d) 3 only

Q.5) Solution (a)

The Group of Twenty (G20) is an international forum that brings together the world's leading industrialised and emerging economies.

The Group of Twenty (G20) comprises 19 countries plus the European Union.

The G20 started in 1999 as a meeting of Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors in the aftermath of the Asian financial crisis. In 2008, the first G20 Leaders' Summit was held, and the group played a key role in responding to the global financial crisis. Its decisive and coordinated actions boosted consumer and business confidence and supported the first stages of economic recovery.

The G8 seeks cooperation on economic issues facing the major industrial economies, while the G20 reflects the wider interests of both developed and emerging economies.
