Again and again...

The day is passing same as passed from few years. Again and again...again and again...

The life getting crucial and the ray of light getting dimmer and dimmer. But the eye still searching for the light and heart say me there is chance to meet some firefly.

The day is passing same as passed from few years. Again and again...again and again...

Seat alone on the same banch again and again , But the speroww come again and again. I see her Built her nest and getting destroy.

But the determination of her to build again and again.... Make me stood up and tell me to try again and again...

Oo..oooo.. o... There is a light of firefly....in dark night...which lead you to the morning....you need to just.... Do ...try again and again.... Ooo... Try again and again.... Try again and again.... Try..... Again..... And., again.....

Dhruv.....
